as the son of ww ii era parents journalist joe sacco was heavily affected by the plight of people around the world forced from their homes while under foreign occupation his palestine series of comic books won the national book award in 1996 and his safe area gorazde and the fixer have earned him a unique place in the world of comics and graphic novels this book is an intriguing look at a popular writer and includes numerous examples of his color and black and white illustrations frames and framing in documentary comics explores how graphic narratives reframe global crises while also interrogating practices of fact finding an analog print phenomenon in an era shaped by digitalization documentary comics formulates a distinct counterapproach to conventional journalism in what ways are facts being presented and framed what is documentary honesty in a world of fake news and post truth politics how can the stories of marginalized peoples and neglected crises be told the author investigates documentary comics in its unique relationship to framing graphic narratives are essentially shaped by a reciprocal relationship between the manifest frames on the page and the attention to the cognitive frames that they generate to account for both the textuality of comics and its strategic use as rhetoric the author combines theories of framing analysis and cognitive narratology with comics studies and its attention toward the medium's visual frames memories are not static or frozen remaining in particular sites or places within and belonging to particular groups cultures or nations rather memory travels broadly speaking memory has travelled because of the demographic displacements brought about by modernity's extremes slavery colonialism ethnic cleansing and genocide and also because of the trade travel and migration made possible by globalisation whether social movement is violent exilic migratory emancipatory or oppressive it is accompanied by memory with the movement of people memories of modernity's histories and postmodern legacies meet correspond and often become mutually constitutive even where memories compete with each other for cultural dominance mutual dialogue and recognition is implicit if not explicit memories travel through and across cultures and national boundaries a process increasingly facilitated by mass media technologies this collection explores a range of case studies of transcultural memory as well as theorising the mobility of memory as it travels it was originally published as a special issue of the journal parallax first runner up for the 2019 ray and pat browne award for the best edited collection in popular and american culture cultures of war in graphic novels examines the representation of small scale and often less acknowledged conflicts from around the world and throughout history the contributors look at an array of graphic novels about conflicts such as the boxer rebellion 1899 1901 the irish struggle for national independence 1916 1998 the falkland war 1982 the bosnian war 1992 1995 the rwandan genocide 1994 the israel lebanon war 2006 and the war on terror 2001 the book explores the multi layered relation between the graphic novel as a popular medium and war as a pivotal recurring experience in human history the focus on largely overlooked small scale conflicts contributes not only to advance our understanding of graphic novels about war and the cultural aspects of war as reflected in graphic novels but also our sense of the early twenty first century in which popular media and limited conflicts have become closely interrelated
