children's literature is in a golden age with a never before seen range of forms, modes and styles. This is exciting for teachers who understand the power of literature to inspire readers and writers in the classroom. This brand new third edition of Peter's landmark text, a new literature companion, has been written to support and build teachers' knowledge of how literature may be responded to, examined, interpreted, analysed, evaluated and created. Written in alignment with the latest version of the Australian Curriculum: English v9 and including more than 80 mentor texts, this is a must-have for any initial teacher education, in-service or practising teacher. The book presents literary writing as both an art and a craft and explores aspects of the craft of writers' artistry throughout the chapters. This text highlights the reciprocity of the reading-writing relationship, highlighting close reading and developed writing, teaching and learning opportunities for teachers and students. There is a consistent focus on how language constructs meaning in texts. In this new edition, a new chapter teaching mentor texts has been written in response to current teaching needs. The book expands its discussion of literary genres and now includes sections on spiritual realism, magical realism and climate sci-fi or cli-fi. The book now also examines postmodern texts, graphic verse, novels, manga and renews its focus on non-fiction, figurative language and poetry, which are now examined as a natural pair. The book considers additional relevant examples for teachers from fiction and non-fiction prose. Chapter 6, reading and viewing picture books, makes stronger links between verbal and visual texts to teach inferencing, interpretative and analytic reading skills. Publisher
